

WHAT AILS YOU

the U. S. mail will bring you the best medical advice for only the cost of writing materials and stamps.

Many people owe their present good health to the fact that they consulted Dr. Pierce's letter, giving him all possible information about their condition, symptoms, etc., and received in return good medical advice which cost them nothing. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, founder of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce by no means confines himself to prescribing his well-known medicines. He tells you in the most common-sense way what ails you, what you ought to do, what line of treatment should be followed out in your particular case, and if your case does not indicate the need for this proprietary medicine, he tells you plainly and frankly what you do need, and the best possible method of improving your health.

Dr. Pierce treats many chronic cases at a distance, through the mail and all you have to do is to write him your symptoms.

Mrs. John Burge, of Mohr, West Va., writes: "When I began taking your medicine I was suffering from female weakness which had run for five years. Took three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' three of Golden Medical Discovery and two vials of Dr. Pierce's Kidney and Bladder Pills. Before I began taking your medicine I seemed to me I would never see another well day, but since then have enjoyed the best of health and happiness. I also took one bottle of Favorite Prescription before confinement and got along the best I ever did at such a time, and our baby is the most healthy one of them all. I think your medicines are the best in the world."

IN SPITE of the poor wheat crops the Deering Binders and Mowers have broken all records this season. Our sales on these machines have been remarkable, considering crop conditions, and not one breath of complaint has been heard. They are the best that money and brains can build. Everybody in touch with Fredericksburg knows the history of the Husker and Shredder business last fall. The Deering won the highest praise where others failed. Deering Corn Harvesters gave satisfaction last year, they are better now. When you come to town call and see us and let us talk Corn Harvesters and Huskers and Shredders. Thanking the farmers for their strong support, we are,

Yours truly,

STORY OF FIGHT NOT BELIEVED

Rejostevsky's Fleet Reported Fifteen Miles From the Coast.

NO NEWS OF JAP SQUADRON

Ships Seen Near Kamranh Bay May Be Third Baltic Squadron, Under Nebogotoff, Which Rejostevsky Was Waiting—Rumors of Peace Parleys.

St. Petersburg, April 25.—The admiralty professes to have no information as to whether Vice Admiral Rejostevsky is waiting for Nebogotoff's reinforcing detachment, and says the matter is entirely in his hands, and that he has not communicated his determination.

Naval men, however, are not inclined, as hitherto, to anticipate a junction of Nebogotoff with Rejostevsky. They suggest that the transport fleet may be left to the care of the slow but powerful ships of Nebogotoff's detachment while Rejostevsky tries conclusions with Togo.

The admiralty is disposed to accept with reservation all foreign telegrams announcing the whereabouts of Vice Admiral Kamizawa and the Japanese ships, believing that many of them are purposely sent out for strategic deception.

The Novoe Vremya prints a rumor that the opposing squadrons were already engaged Saturday, but the paper has nothing to support the report, and no credence is placed in it.

Fifteen Miles From Coast.

Saloon, April 25.—According to the last news received here, the Russian squadron was 15 miles from the coast. The vessels were steering northward.

Is This Nebogotoff's Fleet?

Kamranh Bay, April 25.—The Baltic fleet, with the exception of 18 vessels, including five German and other transports and one destroyer, left here Saturday.

Thirty miles south of Kamranh Bay nine larger war vessels were seen. One battleship was observed and one cruiser. These vessels were supposed to be the third Baltic squadron, under Nebogotoff.

Admiral Rejostevsky, who has been ill for some time, is no better.

Although the Russian crews were confident of victory, independent observers who got near enough to Admiral Rejostevsky's warships to be able to inspect them were not unanimous in regarding the efficiency of the squadron.

It is believed here that it is Admiral Rejostevsky's intention to do everything possible to have Admiral Nebogotoff join him before undertaking a decisive battle. A torpedo boat destroyer is patrolling the coast.

Firing Not Confirmed.

London, April 25.—Beyond the report that from Kamranh Bay the Russian second Pacific squadron proceeded northward, there is no further news of any kind nor confirmation of the reported firing of Kamranh Bay. There have been rumors recently that a part of Rejostevsky's squadron was at Hainan, near the promontory of Lian-chau. If these rumors are true, it is supposed the whole squadron may resemble there and endeavor in Chinese waters to continue coaling and other preparations.

Little attention is paid here to reported movements of the Japanese warships. It is considered that Vice Admiral Togo is not likely to lift the veil of secrecy except for the express purpose of secrecy.

Rumors of Peace Negotiations.

St. Petersburg, April 25.—Mysterious rumors that another attempt at peace negotiations is impending are circulating in high quarters, and the United States is directly mentioned as the intermediary. The Associated Press has not been able to obtain any confirmation of the reports. No intimation of such a move has reached the American embassy, but at the foreign office an official inquired, perhaps significantly, when President Roosevelt would return to Washington.

As previously stated in these dispatches, a considerable party in the government holds strongly to the opinion that now that Admiral Rejostevsky is ready to strike, but before the issue is put to the test, would be the most opportune time for opening negotiations.

German Naval Officer a Suicide.

Newport News, Va., April 25.—Lieutenant L. A. P. Starke, of the German cruiser Bremen, committed suicide aboard the ship. The fellow-officers of the unfortunate man say that he was temporarily insane as a result of ill-health. The officers of the cruiser were assembled in the mess room, laughing and talking, when Lieutenant Starke excused himself and went to his stateroom. As he had shown no special signs of melancholy and had taken part in the conversation, nothing was thought of the incident until a few minutes later, when a muffled report rang out in the direction of his quarters. Several of Starke's brother officers rushed to his room and found him dead with a wound in his head.

Suicide at Niagara Falls.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., April 25.—An unknown man walked out into the rapids of the American channel above the Goat Island bridge and was caught by the swift current and carried over the falls. The suicide was witnessed by a large number of people.
